of Holland Home

Home is Here.

Enjoy new experiences. Forge lasting friendships. Take full advantage of care and security. More than an independent and assisted living community, Raybrook is a place to find comfort and camaraderie. From independent living to assisted living and memory care to skilled nursing, Raybrook offers a full continuum of care and surrounds you with a skilled, attentive staff—creating a wonderfully welcoming place you'll simply love to call home.

Holland Home Mission

In fulfilling God's calling to serve others, we will:

- Serve with love and compassion.
- Commit to excellence.
- Follow Christ's teachings and example in all we do.

Holland Home A Lifetime of Care

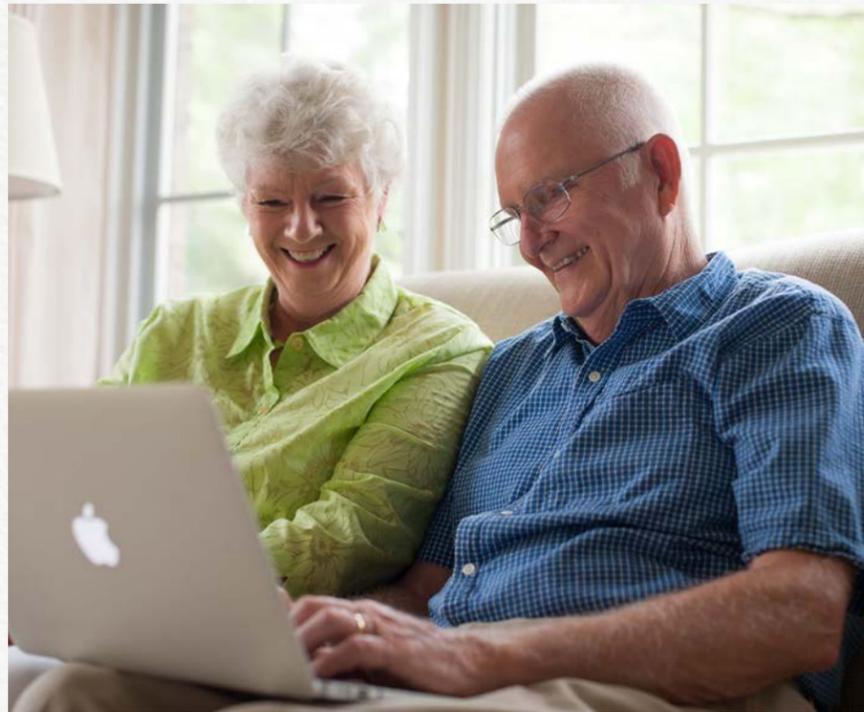

Since 1892, Holland Home has been helping mature individuals flourish. Providing independent living for adults 65 and older, assisted living for those needing help with everyday activities, as well as skilled nursing for an even higher level of care.

Raybrook Amenities and Features

Raybrook offers more than a worry-free lifestyle. It offers new experiences. Whether you're meeting friends for a game of billiards or taking a swim in the pool, Raybrook is about active living. That's why we cultivate a diverse and vibrant culture through a wide array of organized Vibrant Living programs and activities that serve your needs, whether they are physical, intellectual, social, emotional, or spiritual.

Physical Wellness

Built for your health, the William C. Buiten Wellness Center features cardio equipment and weight machines. You can also enjoy swimming in our indoor pool and other activities, like exercise classes. Plus, Raybrook is a Vibrant Living community, which means you have a dedicated staff committed to enriching your life through activities and events that foster healthy aging and active living.

Emotional Well-Being

At Raybrook, we care deeply about your emotional health. That's why we offer a truly supportive environment with a variety of resources, from grief support to mental health counseling to medical/diagnosis support and much more. So you can be sure that whatever your life challenges may be, we are here to help.

Intellectual Discovery

In addition to the active culture, Raybrook offers a wide range of research-based programs and activities to enrich daily living. From our on-campus library and computer room to monthly classes and other learning opportunities, we help participants stay intellectually stimulated.

Social Engagement

Raybrook provides regular outings to the theater and musical performances, as well as other area attractions and places of interest. There are also a number of community-wide gatherings and events to enjoy, from country line dancing to our monthly Sunday brunch. For those wishing to "give back," volunteer opportunities are also available.

Spiritual Fulfillment

Our on-campus chaplain provides weekly services, as well as Bible studies, choir and a number of other opportunities to gather and praise God.

The Home You Love. The Freedom You Crave.

Raybrook is committed to being a source of independence and comfort for every resident—no matter your current wants or future needs. We're thankful for the opportunity to introduce you to living at Raybrook.
